Steamship Perere. That they lived in New York for a few years, but that Mr. Eisleitner was sickly and advised by physicians to get a change of air and they moved to Hoboken. Mrs. Cerrenner, stated that she is 76 years of age, but would not state where Mrs. Gibson was born. She further stated that she went to New Brunswick on September 14th, 1922 with her husband William Cerrenner to collect $1,285. which she had loaned her daughter Mrs. Gibson and that she remained with her daughter the night of the murder. she further stated that she first heard about the murder from her daughter the 15th as it was in the newspapers. The first one her daughter told the story to was Mr. Totten and that was not until after the Snyder boy was charged with the murders. she stated that the Snyder boy is a very fine boy and when he said he had committed the murder Mrs. Gibson told her story. Mrs. Cerrenner stated that her daughter never confided in her, but always spoke the truth and is a very fearless woman and often goes out into the field at night. She further stated that she had a difficult time getting her money from Mrs. Gibson and that she wanted to pay it back at the rate of $10. per week, but Mrs. Cerrenner would not accept payments of that sort and finally got it in $500, $300 and $200 payments, and it is all paid up now. Her husband, William Cerrenner, died in New Brunswick about two years ago. Mrs. Cerrenner did not make her home with Mrs. Gibson, but had a home of her own and has been living at 71 Willow Street since November 1925. She occupies two rooms and is in poor financial shape. Her daughter, Mrs. Roehl, pays the rent for her which is $16. per month and also
